Dropping the kids at the grandparents and heading to fulfill GEOTUS' order.

Wife is afraid that our country's elections have become what she fled.

Have a plan, and I hope you two are familiar with personal protection devices, bring sunglasses.

And I don't think you want to walk in any museums there, if you are there for a protest, they will inspect your bags upon entry of a museum and de-arm you even if you bring mace or other things.

EVERYONE flying in to DC should have their flight get their early enough so that they have time to make the drive if they can't fly.

Chances are the enemy will do all they can to shut down flights. They will wait until the last possible second to do this so you will miss the event. Additionally, even if you've booked a hotel, bring a tent / winter clothes and enough food as if you were on a camping trip. That way when hotels / vendors cancel or close up shop, you'll be set.

Come armed, and come in groups.

Always have a backup plan!

100% this. Don't forget some sort of water container to stay hydrate. Have a paper map in case your phone is lost. Carry a pocket multi tool for simple cutting or removing screws.

I would also carry a few CAT tourniquet, a couple of bandanas, several gauze. You can get the bandana and gauze cheap at a $1 store.

I was there in November 2020, at Freedom Plaza and there was one museum open.

When two people wanted to enter to look around and buy items there, they were told they would be searched before entering. They did not enter.

I didn't see anyone at the whole protest go into that museum in the morning up to about Noon, then we marched to the Supreme Court.

Huh. We never saw an open museum. It was the first MAGA March (either the weekend of the election or the following week). But we were focused on getting to the Supreme Court.

It was on the south western corner of the Freedom Plaza, it was a Gift Shop and a Museum. Oh Forget it.

Thank you both for going

Also, just since you mentioned you wife was Iranian.

I live in Los Angeles, and there are a bunch of Americans (who are originally from Iran) in my local Conservative meet-up group. Having come from somewhere without freedom, and they are among the most pro-Trump patriots I know. And also they can not stand Obama!

If you have met Persians in the US the bet is they are against their regime. Actually they were a sophisticated culture until 1979, many of them studying for advanced (MS or Ph.D.) degrees in the west. Carter let them go from ally to enemy because of his weakness. I remember listening to a handheld radio as a kid hoping their new regime would fail. If a 12 year old could see Iran's tragedy any adult should understand.

yes, then Biden will go to war with some of Iran's enemies. If there's two things we know about globalists, its that they love to kiss Iran's butt ...and they love for the US to be involved in endless, unjust, unnecessary mid-east wars.

Authoritarianism is a disease that infects any political system once exposed. Set a rally point, try to join a unit (Team or Squad), and have a bugout plan as rigorous as any other plan you make incase things get too spicy.
